

Ram founded Tat Capital with a clear vision to create synergy between two great nations and build cross-border initiatives that are impactful. He provides significant thought leadership and awareness of economic opportunities across the Asia Pacific and Indian Subcontinent regions.

A leading investment banker with significant sell-side experience, Ram has won many industry awards for his contribution to the capital markets. Ram was directly involved in approximately US$1 billion worth of transactions through various equity capital market (ECM), debt capital market (DCM) projects, and M&A-based transactions.